

FOOL OF THE GREATEST MAGNITUDE

This dark and heavy rock song is a little like Michael Jackson's 'Thriller', only darker, heavier, and slower. It could have easily appeared in the TV series 'Walking Dead'. I can also hear the Rolling Stones doing this, especially Mick Jagger's voice.

"I am a Fool Of The Greatest Magnitude
I walk alone, down city streets I roam...
On a dead man's walk you can do what you like
There's not much to think about
You're not really dead or alive
The notion is cruel, but you are a Fool Of The Greatest Magnitude"
