

MOTHER TRUCKER

“Mother Trucker” is a country song (probably). It is the story of truck driving Bertha. Bertha’s old man Virgil took off looking for a better job, so he said. He left Bertha with seven sons and a daughter to take care of. She drives big rigs six days a week. Virgil is never heard from again. If Bertha finds him, look out! This is a good story and a funny song with a little country flavor. Why not have some fun!

“She’s a Mother Trucker, a real-life Mother Trucker
She can drive with the best of all you men
She’ll be home on Sunday, back on the road on Monday
Ready to start all over and do it again”
