

ONE GOOD WOMAN

“One Good Woman” is a country-rock song sung by a male artist (with an assist from a funny little guy with a genie’s voice). In this song, a guy happens upon a can in the street and gives it a kick. Out pops a genie who proceeds to change his life. This would make a great video as well.

“I just want One Good Woman by my side
I just need One Good Woman to keep me satisfied
You can have all the money in the world and keep your wishes too
Just give me One Good Woman to give my lovin’ to”
