

DANDY MAN

Today I offer up another (“suppose to be”) Reggae song from my collection. Remember, I’m not a recording artist, I’m a songwriter. This is a simple but well-known story of a Dandy Man. The Dandy Man is the smooth talking, well dressed, wealthy, and sometimes older man in town. He has the time and means to charm the ladies while the working man is away. If you haven’t noticed, I’m a storyteller. Take a good story and melody, add the missing ingredients, and voila, you’ve got a great song!
