ROLLIN'

'Rollin' is a party-mood song you might attribute to a feeling of freedom, independence, or even defiance, anytime you are going out for the night with your "crew". It is also a term referring to the "Rave" parties popular in the United States and Europe starting in the 1980's. Be the first to cover this rock tune and you'll be 'Rollin' in no time!"

"Going out this evening, hanging with my crew Won't be home till morning, when my Rollin's through I'm a Rollin', Rollin' Rollin', Rollin' my life away"
