

A FOOL FOR LOVE

“A Fool For Love” is a traditional ballad love song to be sung by a male artist. It tells the story of a man who has experienced the ultimate highs and lows of love in his lifetime. It’s always easy to say that if you had another chance, you would do thing differently. In this case, he realizes that in spite of the pain that love brings, the joy of his memories is far greater. If he had it all to do over again, he’d do it all the same.

“Sometimes a man is a fool for his love
He may be found lying in a pool of tears
Though his heart be broken time and time again
The faithful words he’s spoken last all through the years
If I had it all to do over again, I’d do it all the same”