

NOTHING LIKE A GOOD DOG

“Nothing Like A Good Dog” is the perfect combination for a good, solid, country song (in any era). You’ve got the guy, the girl, the truck, and of course, the dog. This is the story of love found and love lost (again). But in this case, the dog is the hero of the song. Any country male artist out there should be able to score big with this one!

“People come and go, the times they’re always changin’
You never know what’s gonna come your way
Sometimes it’s chicken boy, other times you just get feathers
Sometimes the sun shines, other times it rains all day
But there’s nothing like a good dog”
