

I CAUGHT A FISH TODAY

Every songwriter needs a good fishing story. Well, how about the story of a talking fish named Steve. Originally written with Jimmy Buffett in mind (good luck with that)! It's just going to have to be someone else, 'cause Jimmy isn't returning my calls. I like to call this one of The Tiki Seekers 'can't miss songs'. It has it all, great story, great melody, and a great hook!

"I caught a fish today and it made me happy
But I'm glad it wasn't me on the line
I caught a fish today and it made me happy
I'm so glad it wasn't me on the line"
