

JUDY AND JIMMIE

CAPO 3

CHORUS

C F
He drinks only whiskey, she drinks only wine
G F C
She never stops her bitching, he stays drunk all the time
C F
They're quite a pair, and I swear, they don't stand a chance
G F C C
But every night at closing time, they have the last dance
Em Am Dm G
His eyes roll back in his head, her head lay on his shoulder
C Am Dm G
And they slow dance to the last song of the night
C F
Then they stumble out of the bar, and everything seems fine
G F C C
They go home and he drinks whiskey, she drinks only wine

F Em Am
Judy and Jimmie were sweethearts since 1962
F C Em Am
Common law marriage in '69, their children number two
F C E7 Am
One son and a daughter, who live in parts unknown
F C G C C
But anyone can see why they never do come home

F Em Am

Jimmie lost three fingers on the job in '84

F C Em Am

When he got his settlement, they bought a convenience store

F C E7 Am

Things were fine till '89 when the children moved away

F C G C

Their lives were changed forever when the store burned down one day, (now)

REPEAT CHORUS

F Em Am

One day when the bar opened, news was in the air

F C Em Am

Judy and Jimmie moved away, but no one seemed to care

F C E7 Am

After all, they were just two drunks who did the best they could

F C G C

How they ever got this far, no one understood

F Em Am

Judy and Jimmie were sweethearts since 1962

F C G C

Now they're gone and life goes on for folks like me and you
