

HELLO MY LOVE

Do you know what Lovesick is? That's when you're so torn up in love, it makes you crazy. You say and do all sorts of silly things to cope and to try to get back into the good graces of the one you're after.

'Hello My Love' is the story of a guy who keeps calling his girl on the phone and saying all kinds of crazy, stupid things. What he means to say is, "I miss you, I love you, and I want to be with you". But it doesn't come out at all like that. It's different for sure. Very different!
