

MAN ON THE STREET

Very seldom does a song of this quality come along. One in a million I'd say. Seriously! "Man On The Street" is an inspirational, gospel-rock song with universal appeal. It could be you, it could be me, it could be anyone. Someone needs to step up and grab this and run with it. Male or female artist, solo or band. Check out the chorus and you'll understand what I'm talking about. And remember, "Everybody's got a brother when it comes to their dying day".

"Heaven is his hometown
The Lord's his next of kin
He's got the biggest family you ever did see
They sure are proud of him
His brother's gonna be here in just a while
So you can all move along
They looked at me like I was crazy
But I know I wasn't wrong"
